DAY 1 - Arrival in Quito

You will arrive at Quito International Airport; rental car reservations will be properly made and the counter agent will have your information prior to your arrival at the rental car counter located a few steps next to Local Arrivals.

The car rental agent will ask for your passport, driver's license, and credit card for a deposit in case there are any traffic speed tickets or damages to the vehicle that will not be covered by the insurance.

The entire city of Quito is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, standing at an altitude of 9,350 feet (2,850 m) and welcoming visitors with its picturesque plazas situated between mountain peaks. The city has an abundance of market stands, shamanistic healers, and fourth-generation hat makers, as well as a vibrant and sophisticated culinary and nightlife scene.

★ Meals: -
Overnight: Quito

DAY 2 - Hotsprings in Termas de Papallacta

After a delicious breakfast, your GPS will be set to take you to Papallacta, situated at 3,700 meters in the midst of an evergreen paramo landscape (Andean high grasslands), which is renowned for its hot springs. At the Termas de Papallacta resort and spa, you can relax and enjoy its pools, naturally heated by the volcanic hot springs. Also, if the weather is clear, you will be able to see the giant Antisana Volcano (reaching a height of 5,758 meters) looming above.

★ Meals: Breakfast
Overnight: Papallacta

DAY 3 – Papallacta – Tena

Today, you will be driving just a few hours east of Papallacta, Tena Ecuador is one of Ecuador's major gateways to the Amazon Rainforest. The elevation of Tena is 1,962 feet (598 meters). Since most visitors arrive in Tena from Quito, high up in the Andes at 9,350 feet (2,850 meters), you'll absolutely feel the change in elevation when you arrive! The drive is along a twisty road down from the mountains into the rainforest.

It feels a bit precarious but is quite safe. Given its rainforest location, it sprinkles or drizzles for at least a short time almost every day in Tena. Expect an afternoon shower and overcast skies, but don't expect torrential rain all day every day.

Meals: Breakfast

Overnight: Tena

DAY 4 – Tena – Baños

After spending the day in Tena, enjoy one last time what you have pending in this adventurous city before parting to the Amazon city of Baños. Drive along the avenue of the waterfalls and notice how the vegetation shifters. Once you arrive at your hotel in Baños, spend the rest of the day at leisure.

Meals: Breakfast

Overnight: Baños

DAY 5 – Baños – Cotopaxi Hacienda

In the morning, you will continue your journey to Pailon del Diablo Waterfall, the same day you will arrive at the Hacienda after 3 hours on the road. National Parks usually close at 17h00 so you will have enough time to rest and you could do horseback riding (Optional). Enjoy the history behind the corridors and walls of one of the oldest haciendas of the Cotopaxi region where you will spend the night.

Meals: Breakfast

Overnight: Cotopaxi Hacienda

DAY 6 – Cotopaxi Hacienda – Quilotoa Lagoon - Quito

Today you will visit the picturesque volcano lagoon Quilotoa. You have the option to walk along the crater's rim to enjoy the splendid view or hike down a path to the crater lake. The return can become a bit longer, so you have the option to rent a mule for the uphill hike. In the afternoon, you return to Quito.

Meals: Breakfast

Overnight: Quito

DAY 7 – Sightseeing & Departure from Quito, Departure

Make your way towards Quito's Airport, and drop off your car rental to return back home. Make sure to return the vehicle in the same conditions, if you had any mishappen with the rental car make sure to let us know in advance.

This small town is known for two things: naturally heated thermal baths – the namesake of Baños, Ecuador – and adventure sports! Nearby Baños, you'll find mountains, rivers, waterfalls, and hot springs to explore on your own in a day full of adventure.

Meals: BreakfastOvernight: BañosDAY 7 – Baños – Chimborazo - Riobamba

Today you will leave Baños after breakfast and make your way to the impressive volcano Chimborazo. You should already be able to spot it several times along the way. If the altitude does not affect you, take a walk to the refuge Carrell at 4.800 m and enjoy the splendid view of surrounding valleys and mountains. Afterward, continue your journey towards Riobamba, where you will spend the night.

Meals: Breakfast

Overnight: Riobamba

DAY 8 – Riobamba - Cuenca

This morning you will continue your journey south to Cuenca, passing through the dunes of Palmira. If time and weather conditions allow, you can pass through Baños del Inca, which contains some special ruins and a fantastic hot spring. From here you will continue to Cuenca where you will be able to spend the rest of the afternoon at leisure.

Meals: Breakfast

DAY 10 – Cuenca – Cajas National Park – Guayaquil

Your first stop today is the beautiful Cajas National Park. This National Park comprises more than 200 interconnected high-altitude lagoons. The Cajas is not only a source of many rivers but even connects to the Pacific and the Atlantic Ocean. You have some time to enjoy the view from the lookout or to take a short walk to one of the many lagoons. Afterward, you continue your journey westwards and you can stop at a Hacienda where you will get to know the process of chocolate making and where you may have a delicious, local lunch. In the afternoon, you will drive through lush vegetation until reaching Ecuador's biggest city, Guayaquil.

Meals: Breakfast

Overnight: Guayaquil

DAY 11 – Free Day in Guayaquil

Today you will explore Guayaquil with your car rental, we suggest starting with a visit to the Seminario Park, a very popular meeting point for young Ecuadorian lovers. Furthermore, this little park is well-known for its land iguanas which laze about in the trees while they catch the sun. You can visit the Cathedral, built in classical gothic style and then we move on to Guayaquil's famous wide, tree-lined waterfront, "El Malecon", that runs alongside the river Guayas. The next stop will be the historic local government buildings, the "Palacio Municipal" and then the "Palacio de Gobernacion"

(the Government Palace). Right in front of this palace is the Moorish clock tower “La Torre Morisca”, which was built in 1843, and with a little effort climbing its steep stairs, we can enjoy the views across the city. La Rotonda, another historic monument, is a statue that marks the meeting between Simon Bolivar and Jose San Martin in 1822. The old district of Las Peñas, a vestige of old Guayaquil to the north end of the Malecon, is a picturesque neighborhood built on the Cerro Santa Ana hill on the edge of the river. Climbing the stairway amid the brightly painted wooden houses, you will gain a different perspective of Ecuador’s largest city.

Meals: Breakfast

Overnight: Guayaquil
